Course: E0390 Integrating Emergency Management into Your Institution

Course Dates:

March 10-11, 2014

Travel Dates:

March 9 and March 12, 2014

Course Length:

This course is 2 full days in length.

Location:

Emergency Management Institute (EMI)
National Emergency Training Center (NETC)
Emmitsburg, Maryland

Course Description:

This course is an interactive workshop designed to assist minority and minority-serving institutions of higher education in establishing or enhancing Emergency Management (EM) courses or programs in their institutions. It addresses issues unique to them and begins the process of identifying and overcoming institutional roadblocks to increasing their schools' EM-related offerings.

Course Goals:

The primary goal of this workshop is to assist Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCU) or institutions of higher education by providing information about EM and the benefits and resources available for integrating EM course offerings. The desired outcome and single focus of the course is to achieve a more diverse population of EM professionals who reflect the communities in which they live and work.

Prerequisites:

None

Continuing Education Units (CEU's):

EMI awards 1.4 CEUs for completion of this course.

Target Audience:

The audience for this course includes Department Chairs of EM-related disciplines such as sociology, geography, public administration, or psychology from TCU-serving Institutions of Higher Education.

Enrollment is limited to 35 participants, enrolled on a first-come, first-served basis. Transportation expenses for attendees will be reimbursed through the Emergency Management Institute's (EMI) student stipend program. Airport shuttles are available and on-campus housing is required.

To Apply:

Complete a FEMA Form 119-25-1, General Admissions Application, with student signature and signature of supervisor or sponsoring agency official. Submit the application by mail, scan, or fax it to:
